

The Oregon Affordable Housing Management Association Presents

Fair Housing Timely Topics

LIVE WEBINAR, A Free Class

Wednesday, October 28, 2026, 10 am to 11:30 am

Recent administrative changes have created significant uncertainty across the fair housing landscape, including staffing reductions at HUD's Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, shifts in enforcement responsibility, and the withdrawal or suspension of long-standing guidance. While policies and messaging may be changing, fair housing laws remain fully in effect. This session focuses on timely issues affecting property owners and managers, including:

- Application taking and marketing practices
- Use of criminal records in screening
- Sexual orientation and gender identity protections
- Harassment (sexual, racial, religious, ethnic, and disability-related)
- Service animals and other assistance animals
- Limited English Proficiency (LEP) requirements
- Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plans (AFHMPs)
- The current status of VAWA regulations and forms

Learn what has changed, what has not, and how to continue operating in compliance amid uncertainty. Bring your toughest fair housing questions and leave with practical, defensible guidance you can rely on.
